

CAYUGA COUNTY

Educational Program	Brief Description	Goals of the Program	Target Audience	Contact Information
Cornell Cooperative Extension of Cayuga County (315) 255-1183 cayuga@cornell.edu http://www.cce.cornell.edu/~cayuga/cayuga.html
Watershed Watch	Students to take an active role in local conservation by monitoring streams. Students learn scientific data collection methods, including methods to monitor biological, chemical, and physical parameters.	Educating youth about water quality issues.	Middle – high school	Kelly Fallone
Watershed Education	Provide educational resources for landowners on erosion, plant maintenance, integrated pest management, and more.	CCE is an active partner in the development of watershed action plans and programs that raise awareness of local water quality issues.	Property owners	Kelly Fallone
Weeds Watch Out! (W2O!)	Developed to establish an early detection and monitoring program that will protect local waterways from future weed invasions.	Summer Programs Engage Citizens to Protect Local Waterways from Invaders	General public	Kelly Fallone
Cayuga County Soil and Water Conservation District 315-252-4171 ext. 3 cayugaswcd@ny.nacdn.net http://www.co.cayuga.ny.us/soilcon/
Cayuga County Envirothon	Environmental science competition at high school level	Increase environmental conservation awareness and participation	High school students and teachers	Sandy Huey
Conservation Field Days	6 th grade students attend a series of rotations to learn about the environment	Career awareness, environmental awareness	Middle school students, teachers	Jenna Hicks
Sterling Nature Center / Invasive weeds displays and information	Pictures, maps, samples, and information on invasive species. The Center also offers a wide variety of nature study programs for the general public, groups, clubs, tours and anyone else interested in nature.	Contribute to the effort to stop the spread of invasive species	General public	Jim D'Angelo Sterling Nature Center (315)947-6143 http://www.cayuganet.org/sterlingpark/center/