

GENESEE COUNTY

Educational Program	Brief Description	Goals of the Program	Target Audience	Contact Information
Cornell Cooperative Extension of Genesee County (585) 343-3040 genesee@cornell.edu http://www.cce.cornell.edu/genesee/
Genesee County Envirothon	Competition between schools to attend State Envirothon	Teach students about forestry, soils, aquatics, wildlife, current environmental issues	High School Students	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu
Conservation Field Days	Educate 5 th & 6 th grade students on watershed protection	Promote watershed stewardship	5 th & 6 th grade students	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu, and Genesee County SWCD staff
Casting for Hope – Breast Cancer survivor retreat	Discover nature and the outdoors as you learn the skills and techniques of fly-fishing	Teach skills and techniques of fly fishing and stream ecology	Breast cancer survivors in the Genesee/Livingston/Orleans/Wyoming counties	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu
Field Research Notre Dame	Continuation of Ecocamp scientific research techniques	Environmental awareness, scientific research techniques	Environmental science students at Notre Dame High School	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu
Water and Soil Conservation Badge for Boy Scouts	Scouts complete hands-on activities to learn about soil and water properties	Soil and water awareness and conservation	Boy Scouts	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu

Educational Program	Brief Description	Goals of the Program	Target Audience	Contact Information
Stream Keeper Outreach Program	Hands-on activities teach students about the species that live in our streams and what they need to survive	To teach the characteristics of stream species including shape, habitat, food and other requirements	Elementary students & teachers	Ellie Dills, Environmental Educator, (585) 343-3040 ext. 107 esd8@cornell.edu
SMART Center Genesee County	The SMART Center applies Science, Math, Agriculture and Related Technology to everyday life with hands-on educational activities and experiences.	Through hands-on educational programs and interactive exhibits, the SMART Center supports the agriculture and food system which is a major economic and cultural force in the region.	Students and general public	Cornell Cooperative Extension of Genesee County's Community Agriculture Educator Pat LaPoint at (585) 343-3040 ext. 118 or pal9@cornell.edu.
Genesee County Soil and Water Conservation District (585) 343-2362 http://www.co.genesee.ny.us/frameset.html?/dpt/soilandwater/index.html&1
Contractors' Meeting	Workshop and display for contractors	Educate contractors on water quality practices	Local contacts and local highway departments	George Squires, District Manager
Genesee County Fair Display	Provide information regarding water quality issues	Educate public about water quality activities	Residents of Genesee County	George Squires
Oatka Creek Watershed Committee	Educate residents about the watershed	Facilitate outreach to municipalities in the watershed	Oatka Creek watershed residents	George Squires
Black Creek Watershed Committee	Educate residents about Black Creek watershed	Facilitate outreach to municipalities in the watershed	Black Creek watershed residents	George Squires
Water Quality Coordinating Committee	Provides direction to the District water quality program	Provide direction to the District water quality program	Genesee County SWCD and the general public	George Squires